NEW DESTROYER NAMED FOR A NAVAL HERO

LAUNCHING OF THE MONAGHAN
AT NEWPORT NEWS MADE
NOTABLE EVENT

Newport News, Va., Feb. 18.—Amid the shouts of several thousand spectators, the fluttering of handkerchiefs, and the blowing of whistles, the torpedo boat destroyer Monaghan was launched today at the shipyard of the Newport News Shipbuilding company. The launching took place under auspicious circumstances.
When the army of workers knocked the last shores from the cradle of the vessel, Miss Ellen Monaghan of Spokane, Wash., sister of the late Ensign J. P. Monaghan, in whose honor the destroyer is named, grasped the bottle of American champagne, wrapped in the Stars and Stripes, and crashing it upon the vessel's bow, exclaimed in a loud and firm tone:
"I christen thee Monaghan." Many naval officers and representatives of the navy department at Washington, witnessed the launching.

The naming of the new destroyer after the late Ensign John P. Monaghan commemorates one of the bravest acts in the history of the American navy. Ensign Monaghan was a Spokane boy. He lost his life in an engagement with the Samoans near Apia, Samoa, April 1, 1899, in which seven members of an allied force of 107 British and American sailors and marines lost their lives, three of the seven being officers. His death was due to his determination to stand by his wounded comrade, Lieutenant Philip V. Lansdale, U. S. N., who commanded the American detachment of 59 men. When last seen alive he was defending his wounded comrade single-handed against a horde of savages.

lies of Boston. The wedding ceremony was performed at St. Johns Episcopal church by the rector, the Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, D. D. Following the ceremony at the church there was a large reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs.
Charles A. Munn, in Scott Circle.

MIGHT NOT BE ALIVE

McMinnville, Tenn.—Mrs. Ocie Jett, of this place, writes: "I don't believe I would be living today, if it hadn't been for Cardui. I lay in bed for 27 days, and the doctor came every day, but he did me no good. Finally, he advised an operation, but I would not consent, and instead took Cardui.
Now I am going about the house, doing my work, and even do my washing. Cardui worked wonders in my case. I am in better health than for five years." Cardui is a strengthening tonic for women. It relieves pain, tones up the nerves, builds strength.
Try it. At your druggist's."
